

In operation since 1988, Bidell, part of the Total Energy Services Inc. group of companies, is a leading supplier of reciprocating and rotary screw natural gas compressors from 20 to 10,000 brake horsepower.

Bidell Gas Compression has an immediate opening for the following position:

Project Engineer\Manager

Job Description

Location: Calgary

Date Posted: October 28, 2011

Job Type: Full Time, Salary

As part of the Engineering group, the Project Engineer\Manager responsibilities include, but are not limited to, the following:

- Create P&ID drawings for retrofit and new reciprocating and oil flooded screw compressor packages from 10 HP to 10,000 HP.
- Collaborate with the Project Designer on 3D model generation and associated fabrication drawings
- Generate instrument BOM's for process and utility systems
- Design and sizing calculations for process piping, pressure vessels, and equipment
- Sizing and selection of all technical design components including;
 - o Process piping design
 - o Pressure Vessels
 - o Control Systems and philosophy
 - o Heat exchangers
 - o Control Valves
 - o Pressure Relief Valves
- Interface with the End User/EPC
- Work with suppliers and sub vendors on equipment sizing and selection
- Create and manage project schedule and deliverables for on time delivery
- Support production during fabrication/assembly
- Support Project Cost Reviews
- Ongoing product and procedure improvements and innovations

Qualifications

- APEGGA or ASET designation, or experience in a manufacturing environment preferred
- Experience in design and manufacture of natural gas compressor packages preferred
- Experience in Project Management
- Ability to be innovative and capable of critical analysis and problem solving
- Results oriented individual with ability to effectively manage multiple priorities and time lines
- Excellent oral and written communications skills

Compensation

- Commensurate with experience and education.

Please submit your Cover Letter and Resume to Dan Rach, Engineering Manager at drach@bidell.com. Only those applicants selected will be contacted for an interview.