Total Energy Services Inc. Announces Take-Up of Savanna Common Shares and Extension of Period for Tender of Additional Savanna Common Shares under its Offer

CALGARY, ALBERTA – Total Energy Services Inc. ("Total Energy") announced today that 60,952,797 common shares of Savanna Energy Services Corp. ("Savanna"), representing approximately 51.6% of the total number of outstanding Savanna common shares, were validly tendered (and not withdrawn) under its offer (the "Offer") to purchase all of the outstanding Savanna common shares as of the expiry of the initial deposit period for the Offer (11:59 p.m. (Pacific Time) on March 24, 2017). As well, each of the conditions to the Offer (including the minimum tender condition prescribed by securities laws in force in Canada) was satisfied (or, in the case of the 66 2/3% tender condition, waived), by Total Energy as of that time.

As of 11:59 p.m. (Pacific time) on March 24, 2017, Total Energy took up the 60,952,797 Savanna common shares validly tendered to the Offer (and not previously withdrawn). In accordance with the terms of the Offer, Total Energy has provided Computershare Investor Services Inc. (the "Depository") with 7,923,864 common shares of Total Energy, representing the share consideration payable by Total Energy for the Savanna common shares taken up by it to date under the Offer. The cash portion of the consideration payable by Total Energy is expected to be provided to the Depository on March 27, 2017, so as to enable the Depository to promptly effect settlement with the Savanna shareholders whose Savanna common shares were taken up by Total as of the expiry of the initial deposit period under the Offer.

Non-Canadian Savanna shareholders who reside in certain U.S. states¹ or in Puerto Rico and who are not "exempt institutional investors" under the laws of their jurisdiction of residence ("Non-Exempt Shareholders") are not entitled to receive Total Common Shares as partial consideration for the Savanna common shares tendered by them to the Offer. Arrangements have been made for the Depository, as agent for such Non-Exempt Shareholders, to sell, or cause to be sold (through a broker in Canada and on the Toronto Stock Exchange) the Total Common Shares that would otherwise be issuable to such Non-Exempt Shareholders. After completion of such sales, the Depository will distribute the aggregate net proceeds of sale, after expenses, commissions and applicable withholding taxes, pro rata, among the Non-Exempt Shareholders. Any sales of Total Common Shares on behalf of Non-Exempt Shareholders will be completed as soon as practicable after the date on which Total Energy pays for the Savanna common shares of the Non-Exempt Shareholders under the Offer and will be done in a manner intended to maximize consideration to be received from the sale of Total Common Shares and to minimize any adverse impact of the sale on the market for the Total Common Shares.

Daniel Halyk, President and Chief Executive Officer of Total Energy, provided the following comment following the initial take-up of Savanna common shares: "We are pleased with the initial level of support demonstrated by Savanna shareholders for the combination of our companies. While the process has been long and hard fought at times, the underlying rationale for the combination of Total Energy and Savanna remains sound. With this initial take-up of Savanna common shares, we believe that the level of support for this transaction will increase substantially and we look forward to engaging with Savanna to move forward in an efficient and cooperative manner that serves the best interests of all Savanna shareholders."

Total Energy also announced that it has extended the period for the tender of additional Savanna common shares under its Offer to 12:00 p.m. on April 7, 2017. Total Energy provided notice of the extension to the Depository effective 11:59 p.m. (Pacific time) on Friday, March 24, 2017.

THE OFFER HAS BEEN EXTENDED AND IS NOW OPEN FOR ACCEPTANCE UNTIL 12:00 P.M. (PACIFIC TIME) ON APRIL 7, 2017 UNLESS THE OFFER IS FURTHER EXTENDED BY TOTAL.

Full details of the extension of the period during which additional Savanna common shares may be tendered under the Offer will be included in a notice of extension (the "Notice of Extension"), which Total Energy expects to file on SEDAR (under Savanna's profile) at www.sedar.com and mail to registered securityholders of Savanna on or prior to March 27, 2017.
